MEET OUR FOUNDER

Fanny Vera is a certified Maxwell Leadership Speaker, Trainer and Coach, author, communicator, and community leader. She is the founder of She Inspires · She Leads, founder and editor of Noticias NC, and serves through Manna Church's Change Your World initiative.

Through conferences, workshops, mentoring programs, and community outreach efforts, she has impacted more than 500 individuals across North Carolina.

MISSION

To inspire, equip, and empower individuals to become effective leaders who positively influence their families, businesses, workplaces, and communities.

VISION

To create thriving communities where every person has access to opportunities for leadership development, personal growth, and meaningful connection.

WHO WE SERVE

Leaders for Humanity serves individuals seeking personal growth, leadership development, and meaningful community engagement. We place special emphasis on supporting underserved populations, including Hispanic communities, by providing accessible leadership training, mentorship opportunities, educational programs, and values-based development experiences.

Through our initiatives, we help individuals build confidence, strengthen leadership skills, and create positive change within their families, workplaces, and communities.

Our Guiding Principle

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others."

Lideres LA HUMAN

If you want stronger families, better workplaces, better schools, more connected communities, and a future where people work together for the common good, we invite you to join us in transforming lives.

Every person we empower becomes a positive influence in their family, workplace, and community. If we can change even one life, we can help change the world around us.

Together, we can make a lasting difference.
